Welcome to Gmail

Now that you've switched from Microsoft® Outlook® to G Suite, learn how to use Gmail as your new mail program.

Differences at a glance

In Microsoft Outlook	In Gmail
View messages and their replies by default as individual entries in your Inbox	Group messages and their replies by default in conversation threads so you see multiple related messages in one view
Create multiple signatures	Use Canned Responses
Spell check automatically while composing	Check spelling after composing
Attach and forward multiple messages	Forward all or select messages in a conversation thread
Delete messages, typically to save space	Archive messages to unclutter your inbox
Sort messages by sender, date, or size	Find messages by sender, date, topic, and more using Gmail search
Organize messages in folders	Tag messages with labels
Assign color categories to messages	Color-code your labels
Flag important messages	Star or add markers to important messages
Manage incoming email with rules	Manage incoming email with filters
Flag messages for follow-up	Add messages to your tasks list or a Follow Up label
Get desktop mail notifications via Desktop Alerts	Enable desktop notifications in Chrome
Share a mailbox	Delegate your mailbox to individuals or use Google Groups to share more broadly

1 Access Gmail

- 1.1 Get Gmail on your devices
- 1.2 (Optional) Add multiple Google accounts
- 1.3 Create a browser bookmark
- 1.4 Add a Gmail desktop shortcut

1.1 Get Gmail on your devices

Open Gmail from...

- Any web browser—Go to mail.google.com.
- Most Google pages—In the upper right, click III, and choose Mail.
- Android devices—Install and open the Android app.
- iOS® devices—Install and open the iOS app.

Access Gmail

1.2 (Optional) Add multiple Google accounts

Have multiple Google accounts? Switch between them quickly with Chrome profiles.

Note: Don't have Chrome yet? See instructions on how to install Chrome.

- 1. In Chrome, in the top-right, click your name.
- 2. Click Manage people.
- 3. Click Add Person.
- 4. Enter a name, choose an image, and click Add.
- Sign in with the Google account you're adding.
   All settings and bookmarks will automatically sync.
- 6. Switch between accounts by clicking your name in the top corner and choosing a different profile.

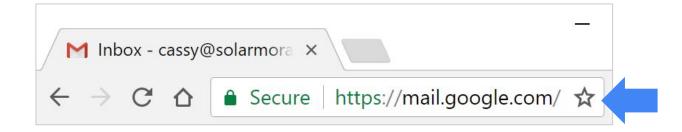

If you're unsure which account you're currently using, click your name and see which profile is at the top.

1.3 Create a browser bookmark

- 1. In your Chrome browser, open Gmail.
- 2. In the top right, click More > Bookmarks.
- 3. Click Show bookmarks bar.
- 4. In the address bar, click Bookmark this page 3.

If you're not using Chrome, follow your browser's instructions to bookmark mail.google.com.

1.4 Add a Gmail desktop shortcut

- 1. Go to your desktop and right-click.
- 2. Choose New > Shortcut.
- 3. Type https://mail.google.com as the location.
- 4. (Optional) Name your shortcut.

2 Make Gmail look like Outlook

- 2.1 (Optional) List messages separately
- 2.2 Add a preview pane
- 2.3 View your Google Calendar in your inbox
- 2.4 Create task lists
- 2.5 Add a signature
- 2.6 Use and change keyboard shortcuts

2.1 (Optional) List messages separately

Outlook: Individual messages
Cassy Smith Availability this attenoon? If d like to met to talk about Project X. What's your availability this atternoon?	6:26 PM
Cassy Smith Project X resources? When will we have the resources we need for Project X?	6:25 PM
Cassy Smith Budget for Project X? Do you have the budget for Project X yet?	6:22 PM

Gmail: Conversation view

By default, Gmail groups a message and its replies in a conversation that's listed as a single inbox entry. Conversation threads are the recommended way to manage your email; they provide a fast, efficient way to see multiple related messages in one view.

However, if you prefer to list messages separately, you can turn Conversation view off. You can switch back at any time.

Note: Certain Gmail features (such as Snooze) are only available if Conversation view is on.

- 1. In the top right, click Settings 🎝 > Settings.
- 2. In the General tab, scroll to Conversation View and select Conversation view off.
- 3. At the bottom, click Save Changes.

Gmail: Preview Pane

Similar to the Reading Pane in Outlook, the Preview Pane lets you see the first few lines of messages in your inbox.

- 1. In the top right, click Settings 💭 > Settings.
- 2. In the Advanced tab, scroll to Preview Pane and select Enable.
- 3. At the bottom, click Save Changes.
- 5. Select Vertical Split.

5 Organize email

- 5.1 Archive or delete
- 5.2 Sort and filter vs. Search
- 5.3 Folders with color categories vs. Labels with colors
- 5.4 Flags vs. Stars and importance markers
- 5.5 Rules vs. Filters

5.1 Archive or delete

Gmail: Archive or delete email

Archive ressages you're not using now but might need later. Archiving moves email out of your inbox. You can find them later in All Mail or through Gmail search.

Delete Trash and then permanently deleted after 30 days.

Note: If you don't see All Mail or Trash, scroll to the bottom of the left sidebar and click More.

5.2 Sort and filter vs. Search

Outlook: Sort and filter
Search Current Mailbox (Ctrl+E)	Alteres	rent Mailbox

And the second		Newest ↓ 0 6:45 PM

Gmail: Search

At the top of your inbox, search for one or more keywords that appear anywhere in the email—in the subject, body, or sender name.

- Senders or date ranges
- Labels and keywords
- Message attributes, such as attachments

5.3 Folders and color categories vs. Labels with colors

r Folder

Gmail: Labels with colors

Give messages one or more descriptive labels, such as Project X.

- 1. Check the box next to one or more email messages.
- 2. At the top, click Labels .
- 3. Choose one of the following:
  - a. To make new labels, click Create new. Type the name of your label and click Create.
  - b. To select an existing label, click it in the list.

In the left sidebar, click a label to see messages with that label. Click More > Label color to change its color.

Outlook: Flags

		$\overrightarrow{x}$ $\Sigma$ ———

5.5 Rules vs. Filters

Outlook: Rules

Stay	Organized
3	Move messages from someone to a folder
•	Move messages with specific words in the subject to a folder
•	Move messages sent to a public group to a folder
	Flag messages from someone for follow-up
2	Move RSS items from a specific RSS Feed to a folder
Stay	Up to Date

-	Play a sound when I get messages from someone
	Send an alert to my mobile device when I get messages from someone
Start	from a blank rule
$\sim$	Apply rule on messages I receive
-	Apply rule on messages I send

Gmail: Filters

- 1. In the search box at the top, click the Down arrow  $\checkmark$ .
- 2. Enter your search criteria.
- 3. At the bottom of the search window, click Create filter.
- 4. Choose what you'd like the filter to do.

5. Click Create filter.

Ex: All emails from "mdesdai@solarmora.com" that include the words "Project X" will automatically be marked "Important" and have the label "Project X."

Gmail: Desktop Notifications

You can get desktop notifications when you're signed in to Gmail and have it open in your browser.

- 1. In the top right, click Settings 🎝 > Settings.
- 2. Scroll down to the Desktop Notifications section.
- 3. Click Click here to enable desktop notifications for <your organization>.
- 4. Select New mail notifications on or Important mail notifications on.
- 5. At the bottom of the page, click Save Changes.

6.3 Mail delegation

Gmail: Mail delegation

If you're using Gmail through your work or school account, you can add up to 25 delegates (such as an assistant).

- 1. In the top right, click Settings 🎝 > Settings.
- 2. Click the Accounts and Import.
- 3. In the Grant access to your account section, click Add another account.

Note: Your organization may restrict email delegation. If you don't see this setting, contact your G Suite administrator.

- 4. Enter the email address of the person you want to add and click Next Step.
- 5. Click Send email to grant access.

The person you added will get an email asking them to confirm. It may take up to 24 hours for you to see them as a delegate after they confirm.

6.4 Shared mailbox

Gmail: Shared mailbox

If your team needs a shared mailbox, such as for technical support or customer service, you can use a Google group as a collaborative inbox.

For example, you can create a group with the address support@your-domain.com, add your support staff as members, and allow people outside your organization to send messages to the group. Your support staff will receive your customers' messages, and they can do any of the following from the group's Topics view:

- Assign responsibility for a topic to a member of the group
- Mark a topic as resolved
- Edit the tags associated with a topic
- Filter topics according to tag, resolution status, or assignee

See instructions on how to set up a collaborative inbox

6.5 Chat

If you have a quick or urgent question, you can send a chat message instead of an email. In Gmail, you can start a chat right from your inbox.

1. At the bottom left, click Hangouts Q.

People you contact frequently appear below your name.

- 2. Click a person's name to quickly start a chat.
- 3. If you don't see the person below your name, click New conversation + , enter their name, and click the person to start a chat.

7 Productivity tips

- 7.1 Read and respond to email offline
- 7.2 Snooze email
- 7.3 Remember to follow up
- 7.4 Email templates
- 7.5 Priority inbox

7.1 Read and respond to email offline (Chrome only)

Read, respond to, and search Gmail messages when you aren't connected to the internet. Your messages will be sent when you're back online.

- 1. Click Settings 🏟 > Settings.
- 2. On the Offline tab, check the Enable offline mail box.
- 3. (Optional) To choose how many days of email you want to store offline, next to Sync settings, select the number of days. You can also choose whether to download attachments.
- 4. Choose whether to keep or remove offline data on your device.
- 5. At the bottom, click Save Changes.

7.2 Snooze email

Postpone email to a future date or time that's more convenient for you.

- 1. Point to an email.
- 2. On the right, click Snooze 🕓.
- 3. Under Snooze until, choose a time. The email moves out of your inbox. It will reappear in your inbox at the time you chose.
- 4. (Optional) To see all snoozed email, in the left sidebar, click Snoozed.

7.3 Remember to follow up

You might see "nudges" in Gmail, which are old emails at the top of your inbox with a suggestion to reply or follow up.

To turn on nudges:

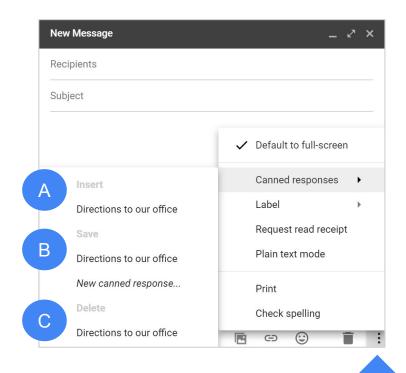

- 1. Click Settings 🏟 > Settings.
- 2. On the General tab, scroll to Nudges and select both options.
- 3. At the bottom, click Save Changes.

7.4 Email templates

Save and send common messages with canned responses.

- 1. Click Settings 🏟 > Settings.
- 2. In the Advanced tab, scroll to Canned Responses (Templates) and select Enable.
- 3. At the bottom, click Save Changes.
- 4. In your inbox, click Compose and write your email.
- In the formatting toolbar, click More > Canned responses.
- 6. Click New canned response to save your email as a template.
- After your first saved response, you can choose to
   A) Insert, B) Save, or C) Delete canned responses
   by clicking the template name under each section.

7.5 Priority inbox

Priority inbox automatically separates important messages from the rest of your email so you focus on them first. Over time, Priority inbox gets better at predicting what's important to you.

- In the left sidebar, next to the Inbox label, click the Down arrow ▼.
- 2. Select Priority Inbox.

This separates your inbox into 3 sections—Important and unread, Starred, and Everything else.

- 3. (Optional) Train Gmail to identify important emails. In the Everything else section:
  - $\circ$   $\;$  Mark an email as Important by clicking  $\varSigma$  .
- 4. (Optional) Customize Priority Inbox.
  - a. On the right of the inbox section, click More ┇.
  - b. Choose from options, such as adding and removing sections.
