

Competition Show Rules

Producer is responsible for ensuring that all aspects of any in-program competition are conducted fairly, in accordance with any applicable Laws and announced rules, and in a manner that is transparent to participants and viewers.

As part of this obligation, Producer is responsible for:

- Drafting all series rules, as well as rules for individual challenges within each episode of a series.
- Ensuring that Producer's Production Counsel reviews all such rules to ensure fairness, integrity, and compliance with any applicable Laws, rules, and regulations.
- Once approved by Production Counsel, sending a copy of all such rules to YouTube Production and YouTube Legal at least three weeks prior to the start of production with confirmation that Production Counsel has approved the rules.
