

Google is proud to call Washington home

Creating economic opportunity across the Evergreen State

"Google Play has provided a platform for me to distribute my apps and games not only nationally, but internationally."

Jason Stock
Founder & CEO of Firecracker Software
Spokane Valley, Washington

15+ years in Washington

Google has proudly called Washington home for over 15 years with offices in Seattle and Kirkland.

$39.43B of economic activity

In 2022, Google helped provide $39.43 billion of economic activity for tens of thousands of Washington businesses, publishers, nonprofits, creators and developers.

429,000+ Washington businesses

More than 429,000 Washington businesses used Google's free tools to receive phone calls, bookings, reviews, requests for directions and other direct connections to their customers.

259,000+ Washingtonians trained

Grow with Google has partnered with 193 organizations in the state to train more than 259,000 Washingtonians on digital skills, including organizations such as public libraries, chambers of commerce, community colleges and more.

Helping Washington's small businesses and startups thrive

Washington business owners are leveraging digital tools to find new customers and grow amidst economic challenges, like inflation and talent shortages. To help Evergreen State businesses like Firecracker Software, Google is increasing access to capital, trainings and free resources.

$191M

provided to support small business resilience

Google's commitment of $191 million in loans and grants to Opportunity Finance Network (OFN) supported community development financial institutions (CDFIs) including Business Impact NW in Washington, to deliver low-interest loans to over 130,000 underrepresented businesses and nonprofits, including Jackson's Catfish Corner in Seattle.

$190M

in venture capital raised by Google for Startups Founders Fund recipients in the U.S.

The Google for Startups Black and Latino Founders Funds provide cash awards and hands-on help to support underrepresented entrepreneurs like Niftmint in Washington.

*The Google UX Design Career Certificate has been extremely beneficial to my career. It helped develop a solid foundation for a career in UX Design. I landed a great job shortly after completing the course. It has been incredibly rewarding to put these new skills to work in real-life scenarios.

Helping Washingtonians develop digital skills to grow their careers

50% of the workforce will need to reskill by 2025¹ and 1 in 3 American workers have very limited or no digital skills.² We're working to help people advance their careers and pursue new opportunities by making digital skills accessible to everyone. To date, we have helped over 300,000 Americans find employment and increase their income through digital skills training.

150,000+

Google Career Certificate graduates in the U.S.

Google Career Certificates help people develop skills for new jobs in fields like data analytics, UX design and more in just three to six months. After completing the program, graduates are able to connect with 150+ top employers. Within six months of completion, 75% of program graduates report a positive career outcome, such as a promotion, raise or new job.³

Google has also partnered with Washington educational institutions like Green River College and Renton Technical College to make Google Career Certificates available to students and to increase employment opportunities.

Washington students trained in computer science to date

Google is helping address inequities in computer science education by offering no-cost products and programs, like CS First and Code Next, to students across the U.S. To date, Google has invested over $240 million toward computer science skilling including Google.org grants to organizations like National 4H Council and Hidden Genius Project.

Investing in local communities

Local organizations and nonprofits across Washington are doing great work to support their communities. Google is proud to partner with trusted community organizations to further that work, and bring digital skills training, grant funding and other resources to more Washingtonians.

$48M+

in grants

Since 2006, Google.org has awarded over $48 million in grants to Washington organizations and nonprofits.

$140M+

in charitable giving

Since 2004, our employees based in Washington – including matching contributions and philanthropic giving from Google.org – have donated over $140 million to nonprofits.

160,000+

volunteer and pro bono hours

Through Google.org, employees served over 160,000 hours of volunteer and pro bono work with nonprofits and schools in areas we're passionate about, including STEM education, economic opportunity and access to the internet.

7,200

nonprofits supported
