Helping Buckeyes develop digital skills to grow their careers

50% of the workforce will need to reskill by 2025¹ and 1 in 3 American workers have very limited or no digital skills.² We're working to help people advance their careers and pursue new opportunities by making digital skills accessible to everyone. To date, we have helped over 300,000 Americans find employment and increase their income through digital skills training.

150,000+

Google Career Certificate graduates in the U.S.

Google Career Certificates help people develop skills for new jobs in fields like data analytics, UX design and more in just three to six months. After completing the program, graduates are able to connect with 150+ top employers. Within six months of completion, 75% of program graduates report a positive career outcome, such as a promotion, raise or new job.³

Google has also partnered with 17 Ohio educational institutions like Lakeland Community College and Lorain County Community College to make Google Career Certificates available to students and to increase employment opportunities.

Ohio students trained in computer science to date

Google is helping address inequities in computer science education by offering no-cost products and programs, like CS First and Code Next, to students across the U.S. To date, Google has invested over $240 million toward computer science skilling including Google.org grants to organizations like National 4H Council and Hidden Genius Project.

Investing in local communities

Local organizations and nonprofits across Ohio are doing great work to support their communities. Google is proud to partner with trusted community organizations to further that work, and bring digital skills training, grant funding and other resources to more Buckeyes.

$5M+

in grants

Since 2006, Google.org has awarded over $5 million in grants to Ohio organizations and nonprofits.

$1M+

In charitable giving

Since 2010, our employees based in Ohio – including matching contributions and philanthropic giving from Google.org – have donated over $1 million to nonprofits.

3,900+

volunteer and pro bono hours

Through Google.org, employees served over 3,900 hours of volunteer and pro bono work with nonprofits and schools in areas we're passionate about, including STEM education, economic opportunity and access to the internet.

8,000

nonprofits supported

Since 2011, Google for Nonprofits has supported 8,000 nonprofits in Ohio. In 2022, Google.org provided $17.29 million in free search advertising to Ohio nonprofits through the Google Ad Grants program.
